

One interesting fact about telescopes is that I could make my own one. I have two different sized lenses and two cardboard tubes one inside the other. My view was clear but upside down.

I think that I could fix that if I could have another lens inside our telescope.